

POST-GAME NOTES

2019 Pac-12 Men's Basketball Tournament
Saturday, March 16 // Las Vegas // T-Mobile Arena
Final Score: #6 Oregon 68, #1 Washington 48

- Oregon will make its 16th NCAA Tournament appearance, returning for the first time since advancing to the 2017 NCAA Final Four.
- Oregon improves to 32-16 in the Pac-12 Tournament.
- Oregon is making its sixth NCAA Tournament appearance under Dana Altman.
- Oregon blocked four shots against Washington to break the record for combined blocks in a single Pac-12 Tournament with 23 over its four games.
- Kenny Wooten set the record for most combined blocks in a Pac-12 Tournament with 10.
- No one has won more Pac-12 Tournament games in Las Vegas than Oregon. The Ducks are 17-4 since the league moved to the desert in 2013.
- Oregon became the second team to win the Pac-12 Tournament by winning four games, joining Colorado in 2012.
- Oregon became the third No. 6 seed to win the Pac-12 Tournament, joining Colorado in 2012 and USC in 2009. The No. 6 seed is now 3-0 in title game appearances.
- Matisse Thybulle had one steal to pass Gary Payton for the most career steals in Pac-12 history with 322.
- Oregon wins the Pac-12 Championship for the fifth time, the second-most titles all-time trailing only Arizona's seven.
- Oregon improves to 15-4 when outrebounding its opponents as the Ducks held a 33-24 edge on the glass.
- Oregon held Washington to 48 points, the lowest total in Pac-12 Championship game history. In four Tournery games, the Ducks allowed just 57.0 points per contest.
- Matisse Thybulle is six blocks away from having the most in Washington program history. He has 180, trailing only Christian Welp's 186.
- Jaylen Nowell scored eight points, ending his 17-game double-figure scoring streak.
- The tournament's Most Outstanding Player Payton Pritchard totaled 20 points, seven assists and six rebounds. He scored in double figures in his final three Pac-12 Tournament games.
- Oregon has won a season-high eight consecutive games entering the NCAA Tournament.
- Washington, which forced 16 turnovers, has forced at least 10 in 25-straight games and has recorded double-digit takeaways in 33-of-34 games this season.
- Oregon set combined Pac-12 Tournament records for most points (297), most field goals (107), most steals (36) and most blocks (23).
- Dana Altman has the most wins all-time in the Pac-12 Tournament with 19.
- Dana Altman has 233 wins at Oregon, two behind Ernie Kent for most in program history.
- Payton Pritchard passed Luke Jackson for the second-most career steals in Oregon history with 161.
- Three of Washington's four lowest-scoring games this season have come against Oregon. The Huskies are 1-2 against the Ducks.
- Oregon was picked to win the Pac-12 regular season in the preseason media poll. It marks the fifth time that the media's pick went on to win the Pac-12 Tournament title.
- Louis King scored 15 points and has scored double figures in 19-of-22 games this season.
- Paul White scored 14 points for the second straight game.