

JONATHAN SMITH - HEAD COACH

- Returned to his alma mater as the first Oregon State graduate to serve as the Beavers' head coach, Smith began his coaching career as an OSU graduate assistant for the 2002 and 2003 seasons.
- Went 2-10 overall and 1-8 in Pac-12 play in his first full season as Oregon State's head coach, leading the Beavers to their first road win since 2014 in an overtime victory against Colorado (Oct. 27, 2018).
- Improved the Beavers' offensive prowess in his debut season, as OSU jumped from 12th in the Conference in total offense in 2017 (333.8 ypg) to seventh in 2018 (404.8).
- In OSU's win against Southern Utah (Sept. 8, 2018), he guided the team to season highs in points (48), total yards of offense (649), and rushing yards (360).
- His first season at the helm saw a school-record 23 student-athletes make the 2018 Pac-12 All-Academic Team, as well as the program's first Academic All-America recipient (Timmy Hernandez) since 1999.
- Coached then freshman running back Jermar Jefferson to a true freshman school record of 1,380 rushing yards, as well as the Pac-12 Freshman Offensive Player of the Year and Freshman All-America honors.
- Was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Washington from 2014-17, helping the Huskies win the Pac-12 Conference Championship and reach the College Football Playoff Semifinals in 2016.
- Served as a quarterbacks coach at Boise State from 2012-13 and Montana where he was also offensive coordinator from 2010-11, and started his first full-time coaching position at the University of Idaho (2004-09).
- Played quarterback at OSU from 1998-2001 and left as the school's all-time leading passer with 9,680 yards, which now ranks third among all Beaver quarterbacks in total passing yardage.
- He joined the program as a walk-on and led the Beavers to the 1999 Oahu Bowl and the 2001 Fiesta Bowl.
- Smith still holds the mark for longest touchdown pass in OSU history at 97 yards to Chad Johnson in 2000.

JERMAR JEFFERSON - SOPHOMORE RB

- Named 2018 Pac-12 Freshman Offensive Player of the Year and received All-Pac-12 honorable mention accolades.
- Enters the 2019 season on the Doak Walker Award Watch List.
- Led all FBS freshmen with 1,380 rushing yards, the ninth-best total in the country and good for an Oregon State true freshman rushing record. The 1,380 yard total ranks sixth in OSU single-season history.
- Scored 12 touchdowns in 2018, good for a tie for the second-best total in the Conference.
- Posted four touchdowns in a game twice on the year, becoming the first player in OSU history with two four-score games in the same season.
- He twice rushed for 200 or more yards in a game, including a Pac-12 freshman single-game record 254 yards against Arizona State.
- Tallied 15 rushes of 20 or more yards, good for the most in the Pac-12. He also added 41 carries of 10 or more yards, ranking second in the Conference.
- A native of Harbor City, Calif., Jefferson was a three-year starter for Redondo Union High School and Narbonne High School and rated as a three-star recruit by 247 Sports and Rivals.

ISAIAH HODGINS - JUNIOR WR

- Led Oregon State with 59 receptions for 876 yards, adding five touchdowns on the year.
- His 876 receiving yards and 79.9 yards per game were both good for the six-highest respective marks in the Pac-12.
- Set single-game highs in receptions (14) and receiving yards (200) against Nevada. His 14 receptions tied the Oregon State single-game record.
- Earned 2018 All-Pac-12 and Pac-12 All-Academic honorable mention acclaim.
- Named to the 2019 Biletnikoff Award Watch List.
- Has a brother, Isaac, and a sister, Imoni. Isaac is a defensive lineman for the Beavers.
- Father, James Hodgins, played in the NFL for the Cardinals and Jets and won a Super Bowl with the Rams.
