Twelve competitors from each individual events and 12 teams from each relay event advance from each regional to the final championships in Eugene. Qualification through competition in an event at the regional meets is required to participate in that event at the final national championships. The NCAA East Regional is being hosted by the University of Kentucky in Lexington, Ky.

>> Heptathletes and decathletes who have achieved qualifying marks received an automatic bid into the national championships in those events. There is no multis competition at the regional meets.

MEN'S PREVIEW

However, Cheserek will be notably absent from the list of Pac-12 competitors as he will not compete at Prelims due to a lower back strain and therefore will miss qualifying for the NCAA Championships. Cheserek, whose last competitive collegiate race was a victory in the 10,000-meter run at the Pac-12 Championships on May 13, will finish his career with 17 individual national titles (14 track & field, 3 cross country), the most of any T&F/XC athlete in NCAA history.

In addition to the entries for the West Prelims, OREGON decathletes Mitch Modin and Joe Delgado are among the 24 qualifiers for the NCAA Championships. Modin and Delgado finished 1-2 in the Pac-12 decathlon to secure 18 points for the Ducks' title total.

WOMEN'S PREVIEW

In addition to those national standards, WASHINGTON's Amy-Eloise Neale leads the West in the 1,500 and STANFORD's Mackenzie Little is the West's best in the javelin.

All tallied, Pac-12 athletes boast 46 marks in the top 10 in the NCAA so far this season (39 individual events, seven in relays).

Along with the entries for the West Prelims, WASHINGTON STATE's Alissa Brooks-Johnson and OREGON STATE's Kara Hallock both qualified for the heptathlon at the NCAA Championships meet. Brooks-Johnson won her second Pac-12 decathlon crown on May 7, while Hallock set a personal-best to finish second.

2017 PAC-12 CHAMPIONSHIPS REVIEW

EUGENE, Ore. - The OREGON men's and women's track & field teams completed their ninth consecutive sweep of the Pac-12 Track & Field Championships on Sunday at historic Hayward Field. It marked the 11th straight team title for the Ducks' men and the ninth in a row for the UO women.

With its ninth all-time sweep of the Conference championship meet, Oregon surpassed UCLA's total of eight dual men's & women's titles. The Ducks' men also moved past the Bruins with their 18th overall Conference title.

On the men's side, No. 7 nationally ranked Oregon amassed 175 points, the third-most ever in the Conference meet and most since 1987. No. 8 ranked USC finished second with 115.5 points and No. 20 UCLA placed third with 101 points. The No. 2 ranked Oregon women recorded the fourth-most points ever in a Pac-12 Championship meet with 189 to post a 54-point victory over No. 3 ranked rival USC. COLORADO dominated with six middle-distance and distance event titles to record its best-ever finishes and highest point totals in both the men's (fourth, 73 points) and women's (third, 78) standings since joining the Pac-12.

Sunday's crowd of 6,778 saw four Pac-12 Championships meet records fall, highlighted by a new hammer throw mark from women's athlete of the meet Maggie Ewen of ARIZONA STATE and the world's fastest 200-meter time this year and an all-time Pac-12 record from OREGON's Deajah Stevens.

Ewen scored a meet-high 30 points for the Sun Devils as she became the first female to win the shot put, hammer and discus at the Pac-12 Championships. She joined UCLA's Seilala Sua – who tripled in the shot put, discus and javelin in 1999 – as the only women to win three throwing events in the same Conference title meet.

Kyree King amassed a meet-best 22.5 points by winning the 100- and 200-meter dashes – the first Oregon man to dual in those events at the Pac-12 title meet – and running the second leg of the Ducks' victorious 4x100 relay. He narrowly edged UCLA freshman Isaiah Holmes (22 points) and UO teammates Damarcus Simpson (20.5) and Marcus Chambers (18.5) for athlete of the meet honors.

The Pac-12 Conference put on a show for the whole world by securing medals in 16 out of 16 days of full competition at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro. In all, Pac-12 affiliated athletes won 55 total medals in 12 different sports for five different countries.

A total of 246 athletes took part in the games, plus an additional 31 coaches and delegates representing 47 countries in 23 sports. If the Pac-12 Conference (55 total medals) was a country, it would have been No. 5 on the overall medal count, behind Team USA (121), China (70), Great Britain (67) and Russia (56). The Conference of Champions (25 gold medals) would have ranked fourth on the gold medal table, behind USA (46), Great Britain (27) and China (26).

54 of those affiliated athletes competed in Track & Field in Rio, with 14 athletes accounting for 15 medals - six gold, three silver and six bronze. Several Rio Olympians are still competing in the Pac-12 this season.
